IDHANT NON PROFIT ORGANISATION

IDHANT

WELCOME TO IDHANT!

We are a non-profit organization with a parent non-governmental organization. Founded in June, 2018, we work on the United Nations sustainable development goal 4: Quality Education.

Our aim is to enhance educational opportunities presented to underprivileged kids.

Our team consists of 5 Co-Founders, 4 Team Members and we have volunteers working with us for the events. We have worked and collaborated with several NGOs related to the education of children in India.

Our main goal is to provide individual children the chance at quality education by introducing them to skill-based workshops.

We wish to provide the kids with a sense of empowerment and motivation through the events we conduct. We want to create a base for future educational sponsors.

Our end goal is to get educational sponsorship for the children.

GOALS & OBJECTIVES

01 Provide Quality Education to all under UN SDG 4: Quality Education

02 Conduct Skill-Based workshops at different organisations in Pune

03 Introduce our concept to the youth in the city of Pune

04 Collaborate with different government schools to introduce skill-building

COLLABORATIONS

As an organisation dedicated to quality education for all, we try to collaborate with as many NGOs, Non-Profits & Government Schools as possible.
On the other side, we also try to collaborate with similar NGOs that focus on skill-based workshops, like The Tomorrow Foundation.

NGOS WE HAVE WORKED WITH

We have worked with the following organisations in the past year:

1. Ayodhya Charitable Trust, Pune
2. Apangshala, Pune
3. PMC No. 17, DSMP Vidyalay
4. The Tomorrow Foundation

STEPS IN ORGANISING SKILL-BUILDING EVENTS

01 Select an organisation & meet with their students and teachers to understand their needs.

02 Select a skill that meets their needs

03 Procure the required sponsorship & volunteers to conduct the workshop

04 Get the material & Conduct the Event. After event final budgeting is closed.

VOLUNTEERS & SPONSORS

Sponsors pay for a single event or workshop conducted by us. If required, they receive the entire budget and a letter of acknowledgement from the organisation where the event is conducted as well as from Idhant. Typical sponsorship is around INR 1,500 to INR 2,500.

Volunteers can commit to either a single or a series of events.
They are taught the required skills before they meet the children, on the day of the event. Each volunteer receives a Letter of Acknowledgement. Typically, an event has 10-20 Volunteers.

WHAT WE DID

Idhant introduced a unique workshop that had a fun and quirky curriculum. Idhant organised an Elocution Event, with the theme of the day : Ethics for the kids of the government school, DSMP Vidyalaya. This was an innovative workshop with the theme of moral responsibility cultivation in the kids. We decided to impart moral science skills in the form of skits, stories and interactive sessions. A group of teaching volunteers was trained and their tasks included:

1.   Helping the kids complete their small activities and quizzes.
2.   Aiding the kids in English speaking during skits and speaking activities.
3.   Encouraging the kids to take part in active discussions.

The event was divided into 2 sessions. The sessions included:
Session 1: Introducing the concept of Moral behavior and story narration
Session 2: Ask the kids about their dream and skits on moral topics.
